Frederick University invites you to the International Conference

Art education in modern society: Connecting art with real life issues

Saturday, May 14th 2022, 09:00-13:30
Frederick University, Nicosia campus

Art and sustainability are at the heart of this International Conference, in the framework of which practical ideas of integration of the 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals in the visual arts education will be presented.

The program includes presentations, round table discussions and experiential workshops. The Conference is held in the framework of the CARE project "Visual arts education in new times: Connecting Art with real life issues", funded by the European Erasmus+ program. Frederick University coordinates the project in partnership with the University of Malta (Malta), the University of Exeter (UK), Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (Greece) and the European Regional Council of InSEA (International Society of Education through Art).
